A-Z Organizations Accepting Furniture and Other Donations

(Pianos and Instruments Listed on page 4)

A Wider Circle
https://awidercircle.org/

Offers free pickup for professional clothing and household furniture to support those transitioning out of homelessness. Its mission is to advance equity in the greater Washington, DC region by fostering the exchange of goods, skills, and connections from neighbor to neighbor, and by engaging in advocacy to address the root causes of poverty. It tends to take longer to get on its schedule for pick ups, but also takes donations at its Silver Spring center. See its list of items and forms at https://awidercircle.org/get-involved/#donate-items

Charotte's Web Enrichment Center
https://charlotteswebec.org/?utm_source=gbp&utm_medium=gbp&utm_campaign=gbp_website

Specializes in free furniture pickup for items delivered directly to local families in need, shelters, and housing programs.

Community Forklift
https://www.communityforklift.org/

For tools, hardware, home improvement items, building materials. Located in Hyattsville. It provides home essentials for those with limited resources. It will pick up some things, but see its guidelines at https://www.communityforklift.org/donate/donate-materials/pick-up/

Donation Nation USA
https://www.donationnationusa.org/DonationPickUp.html

It offers a large-scale pick-up service for a fee. Free quotes are available. The quality, type or quantity does not matter. It takes anything and everything, from clothing to bulky entertainment centers. It reuses or recycles 90% of what it picks up. It services areas of up to 25 miles around Gaithersburg Maryland. It does not matter whether you are in an apartment with no elevators or office building; it services any building within its service range.

Furnish Hope DC
furnishhopedc.org/about

Niki Mock, a Bethesda resident, founded this group to help break the cycle of poverty in DC Wards 7 & 8. It delivers to the homes that need the furniture – large items too.

Greater Washington Goodwill
https://dcgoodwill.org/

It has many nearby donation centers. Use this link to find a location near you:
https://dcgoodwill.org/donation-center-locations/
It also offers pick-up services provided by Resupply for a fee. Information provided on its website.

GreenDrop® operated by Savers Value Village, Inc.
https://www.gogreendrop.com/about-us

GreenDrop® is a for-profit company. It has a network of locations and home pickup services to provide a number of ways to declutter. It accepts your donations on behalf of a local nonprofit, and pays its nonprofit partners for your items, helping them fund community programs. See its website for the partners in our community. Donated goods are sold to customers at Savers and Value Village. Gently used clothing and small household items, under 50 pounds, are accepted.

Habitat for Humanity/Restore https://habitatmm.org/restore/donate-to-restore.html

Provides free pickup for large items like furniture, appliances, and building materials in Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties. Here is a list of what they accept:
https://habitatmm.org/restore/what-we-accept.html

Homes Not Borders
https://homesnotborders.org/donate-items/

Helping recent refugees. Homes not Borders will come to your house to pick up furniture. Offers instruction, and a full complement of dignity-raising programs. They will accept mattresses, which they sanitize for donation, and dignity-conditioned furniture. Given a reasonable lead-time, they will pick up furniture. Donations of smaller items can be delivered to their facility on Brookville Road.

Montgomery County Government
https://www2.montgomerycountymd.gov/DepHowDoI/search.aspx

The County website enables you to search how to get rid of almost anything including clothes and random textiles, and "durable medical equipment", e.g., crutches, wheelchairs, potty chairs,etc..

- Montgomery County Donations Hotlink: For high-quality furniture or office equipment, you can list items on the County's Donations Hotlink, where local nonprofits may contact you to arrange their own pickup.

Montgomery County Humane Society's thrift shop
https://www.mchumane.org/humanetogetherthrift

Accepts clothes, glasses and dishes, household items, and small furniture.

Pickup Please
https://pickupplease.org/donation-pickup/

Collects clothing, shoes, small appliances, and toys on behalf of the Vietnam Veterans of America (VVA). They typically offer service within 24 hours.

Project B Green
https://projectbgreen.com/bethesda-md/

Provides free home pickup in Bethesda for bags and boxes of clothing, shoes, accessories, and small household items.

Salvation Army
https://satruck.org/donate/choose

Offers free pickups for furniture and other household items. You can schedule a pickup online or call 1-800-SA-TRUCK.

Second Chance
https://www.secondchanceinc.org

Although located in Baltimore, it makes pick up in Rockville and other nearby Maryland areas. Second Chance is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit providing people, materials and the environment with a “second chance.” It deconstructs buildings and homes to salvage usable materials and make those and other donated items available to the public for reuse at its 200,000 square foot retail center in Baltimore. With the revenue generated, it provides job training and workforce development for those with various employment obstacles in the Baltimore region, including former prisoners.

Upcycle Creative Recycle Center
https://www.upcyclecrc.org/

In Alexandria, it takes craft items including yarn, beads, and art supplies.

Piano Donation Organizations: See underlined hyperlinks below

- Pianos for Education: Accepts most instruments in any condition, though they do not accept upright pianos or organs. Contact them for a piano donation.

- Society of Unique Artists: A nationwide program that accepts pianos of any age, arranging for free pick-up.
- American Samaritan: Accepts all pianos and handles pick-up, assessment, and re-homing, or uses parts for art and recycling if the piano cannot be re-homed.
- The MusicianShip: Partners with Chuck Levin's Washington Music Center for used instrument drives, benefiting young musicians in the D.C. Area.

Organizations Accepting Instruments for Youth Music Education

- DC Youth Orchestra Program: Accepts instrument donations and has an intake form for potential donations.

- Hungry for Music: Accepts instrument donations and can usually arrange volunteer pick-up in the D.C. area.
- Settlement Music School: Accepts in-kind instrument donations and has an online form for piano donation inquiries.
- Girls Rock! DC: A non-profit focused on empowering youth through music, who may accept instrument donations for their programs.

- Levine School https://www.levinemusic.org/support/in-kind-donations/
- Society of Unique Artists https://suartists.org/piano-donations/
- The Beethoven Foundation https://www.beethovenfoundation.com/donatepiano